4. Disciplinary Action

- 4.1 The President may, in consultation with the Vice President, Secretary and Behaviour Management Officer, take disciplinary action against a member for breach of the Code.
- 4.2 For the purposes of the Code, the group consisting of the President, Vice President, Secretary and Behaviour Management Officer who have the authority to determine a penalty, is referred to as the Disciplinary Board or “the Board”.
- 4.3 The Board in its sole discretion, may consult with any other Member or person considered appropriate in determining a matter.
- 4.4 Where the Board is advised or considers that a Member has allegedly:
- 4.4.1 Breached, failed, refused or neglected to comply with a provision of the Code or any resolution or determination of the Board; or
  - 4.4.2 Acted in a manner unbecoming of a Member;
- the Board may, in its sole discretion, take any disciplinary action it considers appropriate against the Member in accordance with the Code.
- 4.5 If the Board in its sole discretion, determines that disciplinary action be taken against a Member, the Board may take the steps considered necessary to:
- 4.5.1 Obtain information about the alleged conduct;
  - 4.5.2 Provide the Member with an opportunity to respond to the allegations;
  - 4.5.3 Determine whether or not the alleged conduct occurred; and
  - 4.5.4 Determine what, if any, disciplinary action to take against the Member.
- 4.6 If the Board in its sole discretion considers that the alleged breach occurred, or considers the breach more than likely occurred, the Board may impose any one or more of the penalties outlined in the Code.

Coaches Discretion:

- 4.7 It is appropriate for a Coach to take reasonable action against a Member, for conduct they have determined to have breached The Code.
- 4.8 A Member for the purposes of 4.7 must reasonably be a Member of whom the coach is responsible.
- 4.9 Any disciplinary action taken by a Coach under 4.7 may be reviewed by the Board upon request by the penalised Member.
- 4.10 The Board has the discretion to amend, vary, revoke or uphold the decision of a coach for the purposes of 4.7, or take any action it deems appropriate in the event that a penalised Member requests a review under 4.9.

5. Penalties

5.1 If the Board in its sole discretion considers that a breach of the Code has occurred, or considers the breach more than likely occurred, the Board may impose if it is considered appropriate any one or more of the following penalties listed below:

- 5.1.1 A warning;
- 5.1.2 Direct that the Member apologise to the aggrieved Member/Members in an appropriate way, where understanding of the breach and remorse has been demonstrated;
- 5.1.3 Direct the Member to undertake any one of the following duties for the club as many times as is appropriate considering the breach of the Code by the Member and the duties they may already undertake;
